Notice that when counting, patterns that repeat are marked with different colors. This will help you learn your numbers faster.

Look!

"y" means "and" in English and goes before one units (1-9) in double digit numbers, except in numbers 11 through 15.

From 16 to 19, in Spanish we say:

ten and six ten and seven ten and eight ten and nine.

We spell 16-19 as one word exchanging the "y" for "i".

Dieciséis

(Diez y seis)

Diecisiete

(Diez y siete)

Dieciocho

(Diez y ocho)

Diecinueve

(Diez y nueve)
